

WASHINGTON “ Today, Congressman John W. Olver announced that President Clinton has s

The language will provide funding for three demonstration projects across the country to transf œThe redevelopment of the Heywood Wakefield facility in downtown Gardner has been one of my top priorities since 1993,” Olver said. œSince then, I have been working with city and developers looking for ways that the federal government could provide housing for elderly, create new jobs, and correct an enormous blight in Gardner.”

Earlier this year, Congressman Olver worked with Congressman Barney Frank (MA-04) who is

Most recently, the original housing bill which passed the House, was folded into the FY2000 VA

Now that the bill has been signed into law, Congressman Olver will lobby HUD to prioritize the

Heywood Wakefield III will offer elders of all economic means the opportunity to live independe

###